Acknowledgement of Country

I would like to acknowledge and pay respect to the traditional owners of the land on which we meet: the Gadigal people of the Eora Nation. It is upon their ancestral lands that the University of Sydney is built.

As we share our own knowledge, teaching, learning and research practices within this university may we also pay respect to the knowledge embedded forever within the Aboriginal Custodianship of Country.

Emergency procedures (on campus)

- In the unlikely event of an emergency, we may need to evacuate the building.
- If we need to evacuate, we will ask you to take your belongings and follow the green exit signs.

  - More on exam structure and preparation in week 13

Special Consideration (University Policy)

- If your performance on assessments is affected by illness or misadventure
- Follow proper bureaucratic procedures
  - Have professional practitioner sign special USyd form
  - Submit application for special consideration online, upload scans
  - Note you have only a quite short deadline for applying
  - http://sydney.edu.au/current\_students/special\_consideration/
- Also, notify the coordinator by email as soon as anything begins to go wrong
- There is a similar process if you need special arrangements e.g., for religious observance, military service, representative sports

Late Assessments

- Suppose you hand in work after the deadline:
- If you have not been granted special consideration or arrangements
  - A penalty of 5% of the available marks will be taken, per day (or part) late
  - Late penalty does not apply to the quiz; you cannot re-take the quiz if you miss it
  - If you have been granted special permission for quiz, extension might be applied
- Warning: submission sites get very slow near deadlines
- Submit early; you can resubmit if there is time before the deadline

Academic integrity

For the first and subsequent sessions

THE UNIVERSITY OF
SYDNEY

Academic integrity

- Academic integrity refers to behaving honestly, ethically and responsibly in relation to all elements of your study at the university, including assessments.
- Always submit your own work, sit your own tests, and take your own examinations.
- Acknowledge any contributions in your assignment which are not your original thoughts, ideas or words.
- Academic Honesty Education Module – all commencing students must complete by census date. Continuing students can self-enrol at any time.

Strategies for maintaining academic integrity

Planning and time management

Use citations and referencing

Know your strengths and what you need to develop

Know when and where to ask for help

What is academic dishonesty?

The following are some behaviours that are academically dishonest:

- Plagiarism (this is the most common form)
- Collusion or illegitimate co-operation
- Recycling (using your own work from previous assessments)
- Cheating, including contract cheating
  - sharing questions or accessing solutions on online “help sites”
  - receiving coaching from a private tutoring company on how to complete an assignment
  - asking someone else to write your assignment (for payment or not)
- Exam cheating (using prohibited materials, working with others)
- Fabrication or falsification of sources, data or results

What are the consequences?

- The University has strong mechanisms for detection of potential academic dishonesty.
- Suspected breaches are reported to the faculty educational integrity team for investigation.
- The University is deeply committed to ensuring the integrity of its educational programs and treats integrity breaches seriously. As a result, the academic consequences for cheating are numerous.
- You may:
  - need to resubmit a task with a mark penalty or
  - receive a 0 for the assessment or even the unit of study
  - be suspended or even excluded from your studies for serious misconduct

Understanding contract cheating

Commercial cheating services are ILLEGAL in Australia. Illegal cheating services offer to:

- Sell you essays, assignments, study notes or exams
- Ask you to upload previous work from your course
- Sit exams on your behalf

If you use cheating services, you can face disciplinary action in accordance with USYD's policies. Resulting action can include:

- Failing the unit of study or course
- Suspension or exclusion from your studies
- Losing your professional accreditation
- Being blackmailed by cheating service operators
- For international students, losing your visa

Be aware of illegitimate services

- Be aware of any services that are not affiliated with the University.
- In the online environment, malicious organisations masquerading as 'online help sites and platforms' are preying on students.
  - These organisations may pressure you to pay for online assistance, then turn to blackmail when you change your mind.
  - Essays or solutions bought from the internet are usually poor quality, badly written and often wrong.
  - You won't acquire the skills and knowledge required for your degree, making it difficult to complete further assessments

As a student, you can contact the Office of Educational Integrity to report something anonymously or seek advice.

Sitting proctored tests

- ProctorU software is used to monitor your conduct during an exam.
- Incidents are flagged to the University and reviewed for breaches of academic integrity.
- The exam will be compromised if you:
  - Use prohibited materials (e.g., headphones, mobile phones, etc)
  - Communicate or collude with others
  - Seek help via a third party, the university's sites or help sites

To ensure success, we recommend the following tips:

1. Sit directly in front of the camera
2. Review the online test support site on Canvas
3. Know what materials are permitted during the exam.
4. Have your ID ready
5. Don't wear headphones, either wired or unwired
